Pieces of Eighty

"I calls my parrot Cap'n Flint, after the famous buccaneer—here's Cap'n Flint predicting success to our v'yage. Wasn't you, cap'n?"/ And the parrot would say, with great rapidity, "Pieces of eight! pieces of eight! pieces of eight!" till you wondered that it was not out of breath, or till Long John Silver threw his handkerchief over the cage."

Treasurer Island
Robert L. Stevenson

Pirates of the 18th Century filled their sea chests with "pieces of eight" or "piasters," Spanish silver dollars worth eight "reales" or coins used to make change. Their irregular shape made them more desirable.

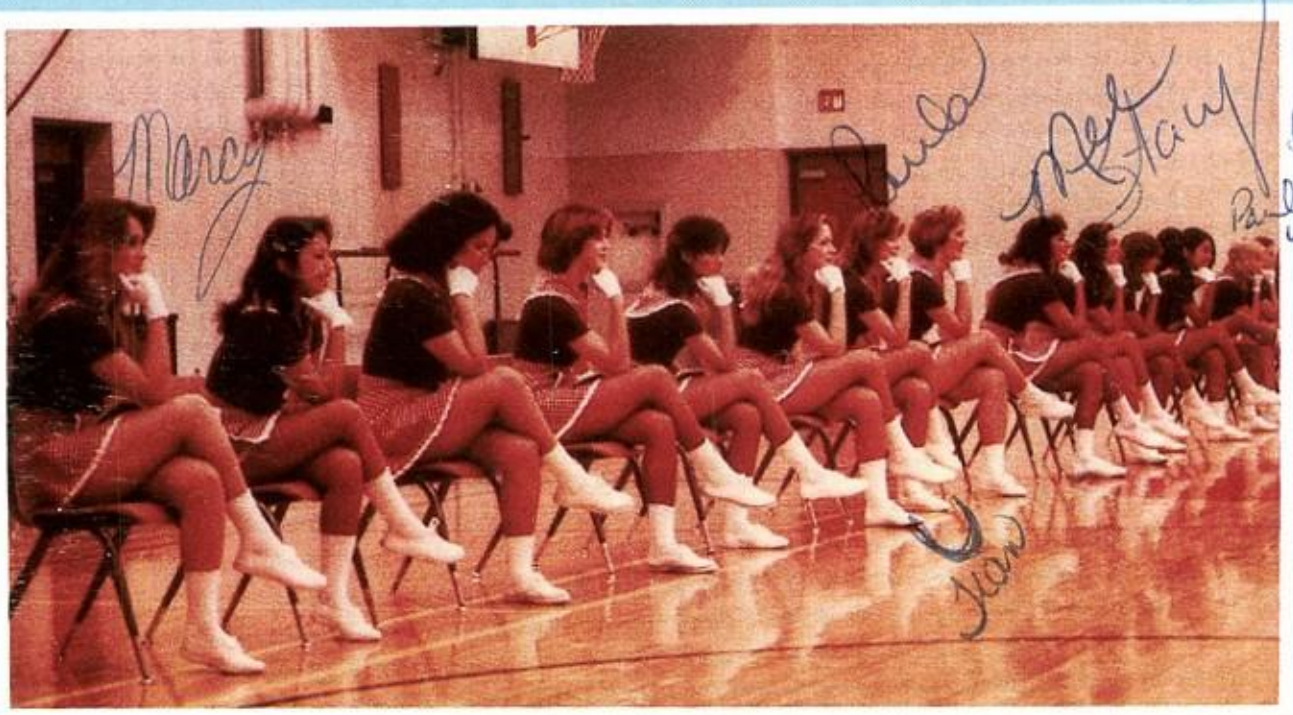
On our voyage through the '79-'80 school year, we have filled out "Treasure Chest" with Pirate's booty. Pieces of eight, precious silver coins, garnered from every phase of student life, make our coffers a source of great riches.

Our eight "reales" are the areas of student life in which lie the wealth of talent, character, and personality of SHS. Though each is an entity unto itself, the bits collectively, though irregular in shape and appearance as the original piasters, form a valuable whole.

Like pieces of a giant jig-saw puzzle, each person, each activity works with another, interlocking into a panoramic view of a school, a year, a memory.

As the "reales" of the past became the "two bits" or the "quarter" of today, so the dawning of a new decade saw many changes in our lives. "Pieces of Eighty" reflect the changes which took place in our world this year. But change is an essential quality of education.

The Pirate Mural created by talented SHS students drew great interest.



"The Treasures", SHS's first drill team made their debut.

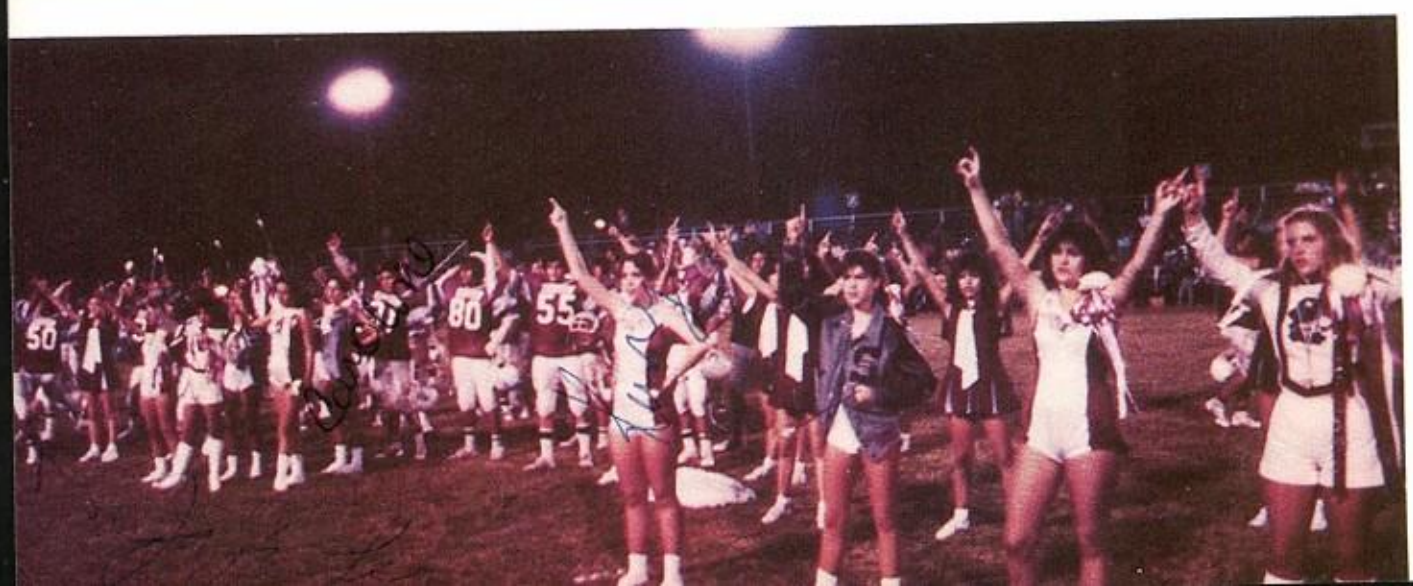
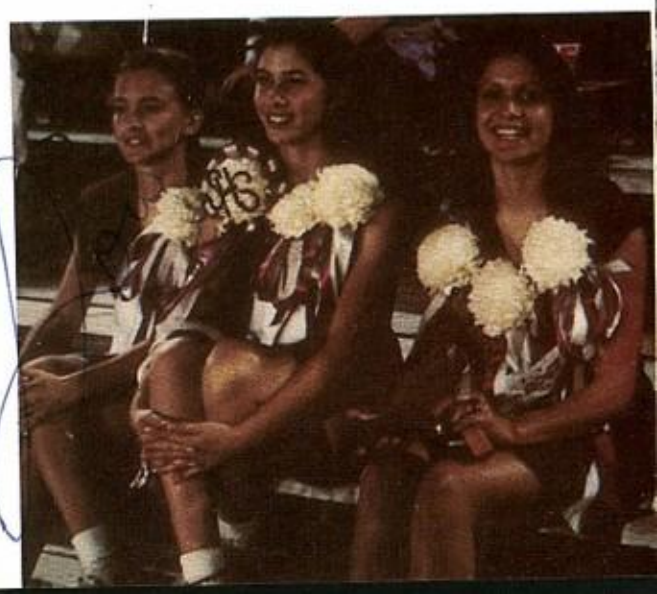
SINTON





Homecoming '79

Ashes and accolades, boots and boosters, crowns and crepe paper! Once a year the tedium of learning the A-B-C's gives way to celebrating the traditions and innovations of Homecoming. From the sound of the 8:30 bell on Monday morning until the strains of the last melody at the Victory Dance at midnight on Friday, excitement prevades the air.

This year Twirp Week set the scene for the "show-off" in everyone. Duck tails, pony tails, bobby sox and leather jackets of "Fifties Day" gave way to blue jeans and boots on "Western Day." A sea of maroon and white on "Spirit Day" became a wave of somber black on "Mourn the Trojans Day." "Picture Day" kept everyone waiting in line for a mirror and a turn in front of the camera. And the sophomores showed the other classes how to decorate a hall expertly.

Pick-ups loaded with scavengers scoured the town for legal (?) timber for the big bonfire. As the motley pile of burnables climbed, so did the spirit at SHS. Then, alas, an arsonist's match fused the mass leaving a smoldering pile of rubble. Their accumulation was burned up, but so was the student body! An all-out effort was made, and at the appointed hour never was a bigger or better bonfire lit to spark courage in the hearts of the Pirates and delight in the hearts of their supporters.

Formals, flowers and football! The big night had arrived and while the battling Pirates prepared to meet the enemy, the Homecoming Court took the field to crown The Queen. Tension became tears as Debbie Nino donned the royal robe and tiara and accepted the arm bouquet or red roses.

Although the game score was not larger on the "home" side of the scoreboard, the Pirates did not leave the field dispirited. The enthusiastic support of the band, pep squad, and drill team cheered them to the dressing room unbowed.

The Homecoming Dance bade farewell to yet another observance of long established customs. As students and exes straggled out by twos, the doors of Sinton High School closed on the last faint notes of the band and on Homecoming '79, for it would be no more. In its place will be Homecoming '80.

The Builder

A builder builded a temple,
He wrought it with grace and skill;
Pillars and groins and arches
All fashioned to work his will.
Men said, as they saw its beauty,
"It shall never know decay;
Great is thy skill, O Builder!
Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A Teacher builded a temple
With loving and infinite care,
Planning each arch with patience,
Laying each stone with prayer.
None praised her unceasing efforts,
None knew of her wondrous plan,
For the temple the Teacher builded
Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the Builder's temple,
Crumpled into the dust;
Low lies each stately pillar,
Food for consuming rust.
But the temple the Teacher builded
Will last while the ages roll,
For that beautiful unseen temple
Was a child's immortal soul.

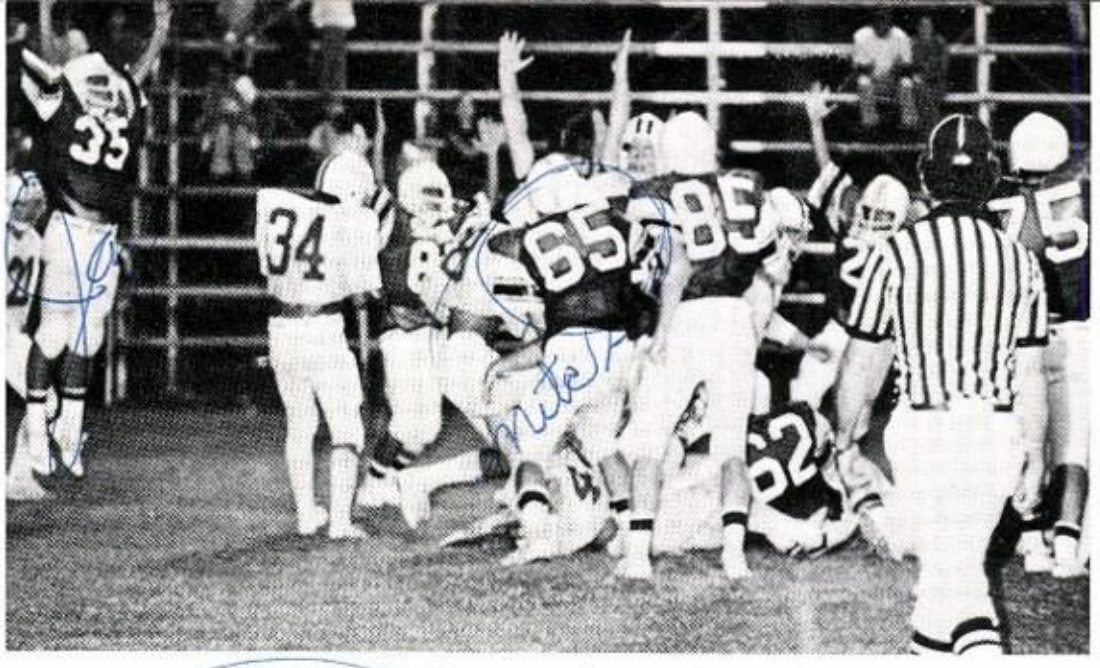
Watching the Time Run Out

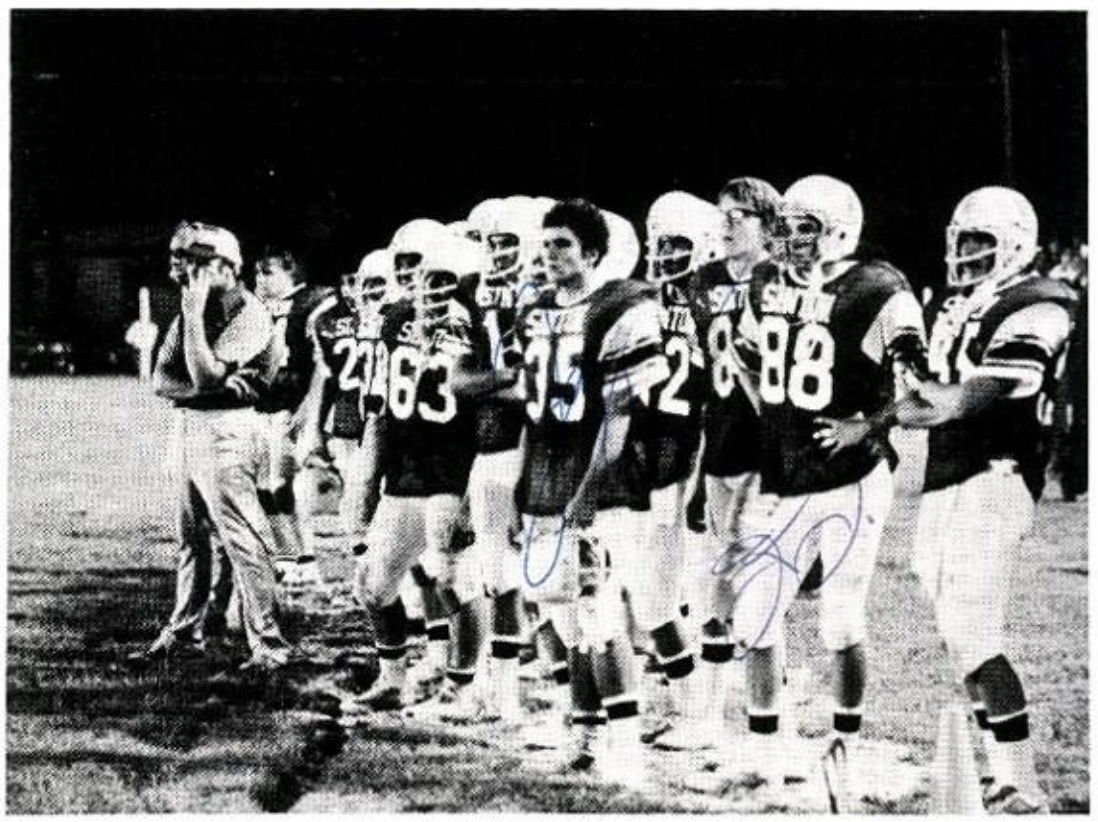
With the shrill of the first whistle, the clock began to tick off the minutes for the maroon and white. With the odds against them at the offset, the Pirates refused to give up the ship.

Starting in the heat of August, they practiced hard and facing their strong opposition, they played hard. They took each loss with Pirate Pride that good coaches and loyal fans help to build.

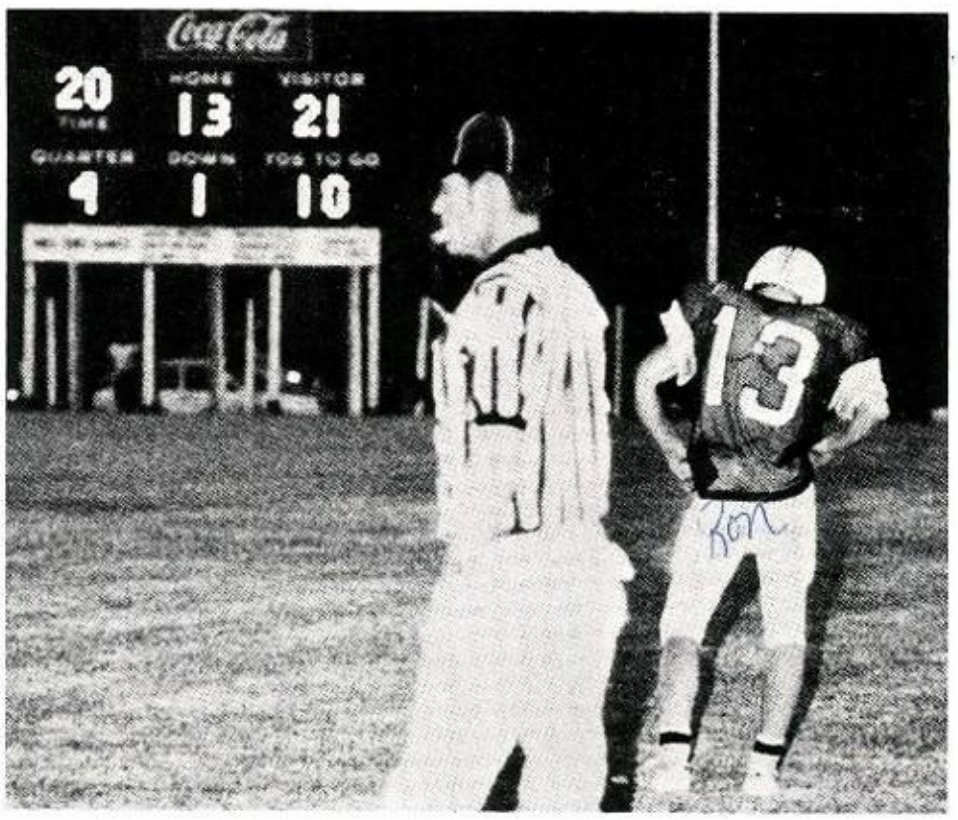
The hands of the clock did not stop for victories or the defeats but moved on. Watching time run out, the stalwart team anchored their season with a 1-8-1 record.



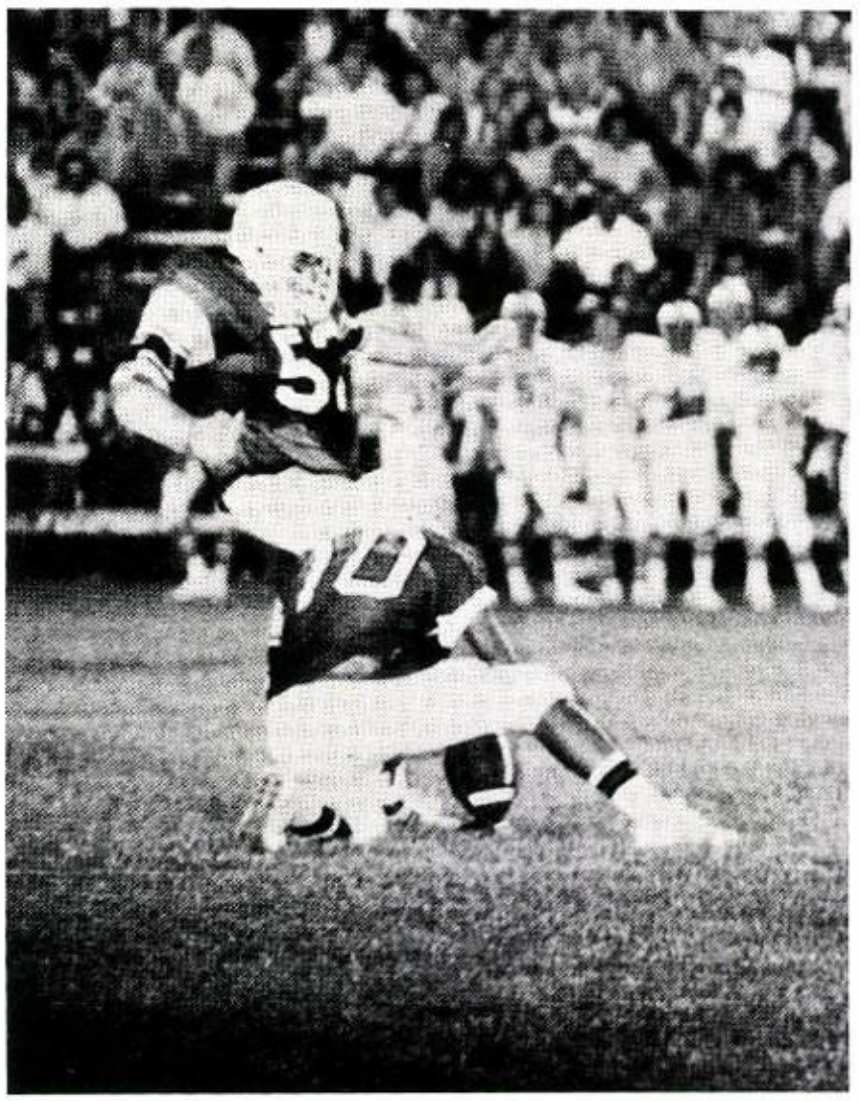
Jay Hellums tries to get the team's attention.



Pirate offense anxiously awaits to get back on the field.



Time runs out for the Pirates.



Mando Correa kicks a three pointer.

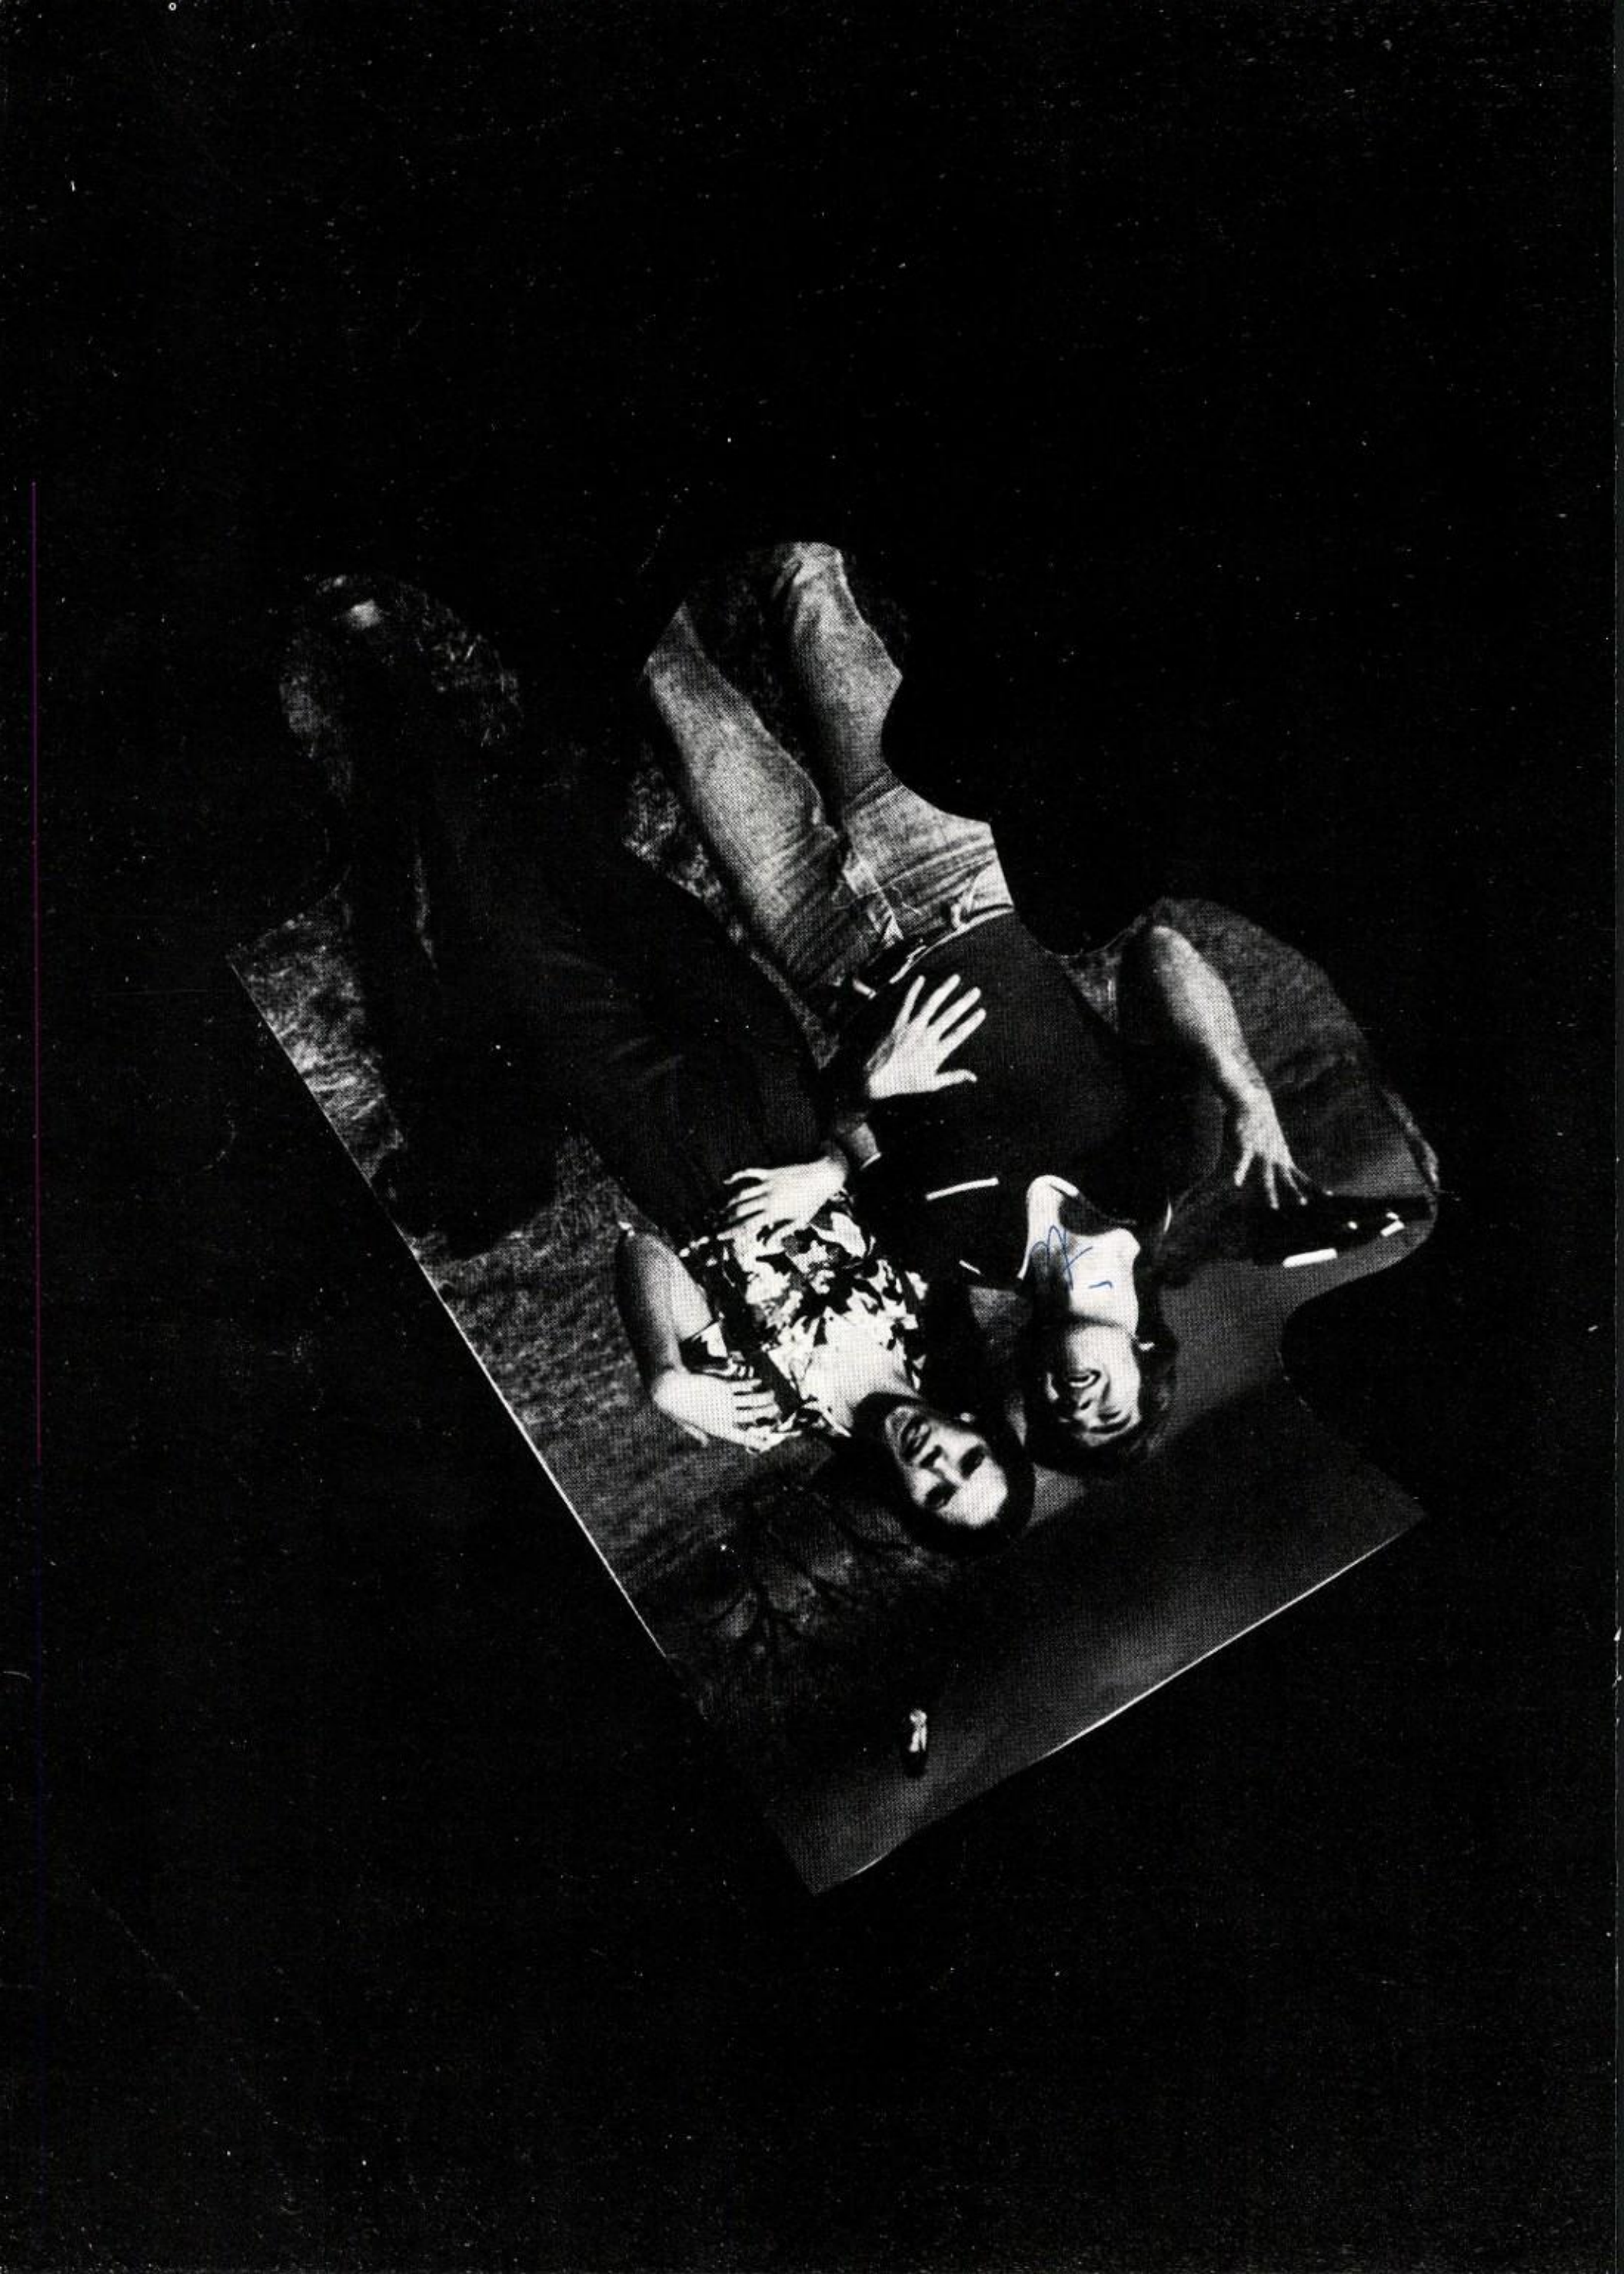
PERSONALITIES



Mr. and Miss Sinton High School

"The Love Boat" set sail on Friday, February 15. Anticipation and excitement prevailed among her passengers which included the fourteen most popular boys and girls of SHS. The moment had arrived for the highlight of the evening—the announcement of Mr. and Miss SHS. A fanfare blared, confetti filled the air, and into the spotlight stepped Seniors Lisa Butler and Rudy Alafa. The applause that filled the room indicated the great popularity of these "favorites." And the four year history of this pair indicates why they were chosen.

Lisa Butler's charm, beauty and personality have won her many honors—San Patricio A&H Show Queen, Senior Class Favorite, Press and Camera Club Sweetheart, and Homecoming Duchess. She was a Varsity Cheerleader for two years. As a freshman and sophomore she served as class secretary. During her junior year she was elected to National Honor Society and was a Student Council member as a Senior.

Rudy Alafa is a well-known and personable student. He is a dedicated athlete having lettered two years in football and having been named to the Second Team All-District Team his junior year. He also lettered in track three years. The Class of '80 selected him as Class Favorite during his freshman and junior years. The student body chose him as a school favorite during his sophomore and junior years. He served on Student Council for three years. This year he was in the Pan American Club and Library Club Beau.

These two have been and are truly "favorites" of SHS.

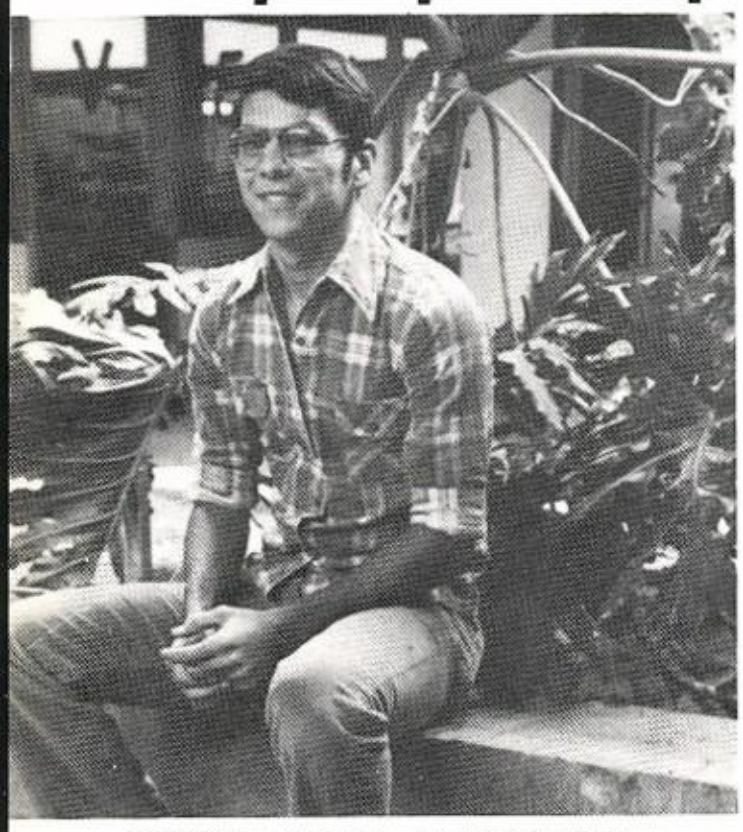
PEP SQUAD

Keeps Spirit Up



PEP SQUAD BEAU—Mario Moreno.

The Pep Squad is an important part of the football season. At the end of each school year, the squad chooses the future cheerleaders. The Pep Squad attends all football games and pep rallies. During these pep rallies they also sponsor the class competition. They decorate the halls for the football games and supply paint and paper for the other clubs and organizations to also decorate. At the end of the football season they host a party for the football players. To raise money for their projects, in February they sell carnations for Valentines.

Lynne,
We've had lots of good times together, and I hope we will have lots more this year. Every since BAY City, you've been a very good friend to me. You're so easy to talk to, and you're a great listener. Let's stay close this year, so we can have a blast together at Speech Tourney. Of course, they could never be the same without Jeff & Michael, but we'll have to do the best we can. (Don't ever forget Boy City, & Mr. Allen) Good luck! I wish you "Peace & everything Good"
Love,
Anita

Lynne,
You are so real nice & sweet & beautiful. I wish that you would not be moving because it seems like yesterday you and I moved here but that's life. Good luck in everything you & Mary Kay do. Bless you.

Lynne,
You're indescribable to begin with but I'll do my best anyway. I never really see what I have until it is gone. Love with you. I miss you at times and wish we were still together but sometimes it seems like it's better this way. I really don't know.
I had some of the best times of my life together with you. All never to best for

I really don't know what to write. I don't believe you're leaving. I'm really gonna miss ya, a lot! I'll remember you for a lot of things (your sweetness, the good times, + my terrible habit-HA!) whenever you twist your hair, I think of me. I think of you whenever I do, (all the time!) And really glad I got to share a few years of your life. They have been great. Don't forget us here, because we love ya!! Keep in touch always

Lynne,
You are one of the nicest, sweetest girls that I have been known. I think that you are very goodlooking too!! We have had plenty of good times in the past, and maybe we can have some more in the future. I wish you the best of luck in everything you attempt. If you ever need a friend to talk to you always come to me. Take care, hug.

Love ya,
Perry

Lynne,
I don't know how to begin. It seems like our friendship has been on a scale.
3rd 9th 10th 11th
9th grade was the closest we ever were. I really miss that, but we both know that people change and
so do their friendships.
We've had a lot of fun
together, speech tournaments (Bay City, Mt. Allen) church camp and just missing around. I've enjoyed being your Dear Abby
and hearing all your boy problems. I don't know what I'm gonna do with out you in Algebra. You and I know all the problems I have. I'm gonna really miss you when you move. I hope we can always keep in touch.
Keep out of trouble and keep up your grades. Stay close to the Lord no matter where you do or where ever you go and always remember, You can do all things thru Christ which strengthens me.
Love,
Caroline

Dearest Lynne,
I really am sorry that you are leaving. It just seemed like we were just getting to each other. I hope that you enjoy the place you are moving to. Stay neat and pretty.
Love
